

HARRY POTTER AND THE TRANSFORMERS
Volume III
Anti-Matter A Legend of Power
(Finale)

Back inside the main building of Mission Control, the rangers were lounging around taking it easy when an alarm system went off, alerting everyone to the BIG SCREEN as Nicole reported...

NICOLE: Listen up, I have detected the Syndicate...they're on their way here.

Everyone stared in disbelief at the approaching bad guys knowing they were in yet another confrontation with the enemy soon enough. That is until Acorn spoke up, getting their attentions.

SALLY: I don't have to remind you what's ahead of us. They've got to be stopped and we're the only ones who can do it as always.

RON: When we're done with them.

HERMIONE: They're going to wish they never messed with us at all.

The wizard and witch rushed out of the building and zoomed into the sky on their brooms with Fox and Falco assisting them to intercept the nWo.

FOX: Okay, buddy, let's roll.

FALCO: I'm with you, McCloud. <grins>

Ron and Falco attack one of the jets or copters, it turns out to be Simian Kong while Hermione and Fox attacked another aircraft, that one was She-Lion.

HERMIONE: Okay, you stupid cat. Let's see how tough you are! <strikes out with her wand>

FOX: Fire away, madame witch!

SHE-LION: Hey! <snarls in anger> Cut that out, ooooooh!

FALCO: Hey, check out this move...yeehaaw!

RON: Yes, ride him...cowboy!

Lombardi hung from the underside of Kong's aircraft guise, feet dangling beneath empty air as Weasley continued blasting the gorilla bouncer with strikes from his wand, making Simian grunt in anger and pain. All of a sudden, Drago Wolf came zooming in out of nowhere to launch his attack.

DRAGO: You idiots are forgetting...me! <attacks>

He slams full tilt into Falco, dislodging the falcon pilot from his perch and he went falling towards the ground far below, but Ron swooped down to catch him at the last second on his broomstick. Simultaneously, She-Lion knocked Fox out of control herself, then went after Hermione but the witch expert eluded her attack, instead hitting her with another burst of magic from her wand. Granger rescued McCloud from hitting the ground, catching the fox pilot on her broomstick also.

HERMIONE: Whoops, it seems our tactics still need more work.

FOX: Oh, what makes you say that? <puzzled>

FALCO: I thought we had them on the ropes, for the moment.

RON: Looks that way, dude.

Suddenly they came under fire from the attacking forces of the New World Order warriors as the jets and copters dove down to blast away with their laser guns. Rushing out of the HQ came the other warriors of Ginny, Luna, Harry, Hagrid, Slippy, Krystal, Ninjara, Kato, Tigress, Geoffrey, Bunny and Amy who joined in on the fighting also.

Just then...Sleuth Dog appeared, landing in the midst of his horde warriors and Professor Snape was beside him with Malfoy on his other side, both with sneering smirks on their faces.

SLEUTH: Draco, the anti-matter, quickly!

MALFOY: Here it is, my lord. <hands it over>

SLEUTH: <holds it over his head> Beware, Galaxy Rangers. I am about to transform into the most powerful weapon in the universe.

So saying he downed the liquid contents of the cube and smacked-licked his lips as if savoring-enjoying the taste of the drink he consumed. Suddenly his body glowed brilliantly with power and seconds after that, he morphed into his form of Hind GunShip guise. Snape climbed into the cockpit, sitting behind the controls of the weapon systems, an evil smile on his face as he contemplated the fate of his enemies.

SNAPE: I am about to transform those foolish heroes into dead zombies.

He began firing away with the Gatling gun, the laser bullets exploding around the Rangers who leaped and dove for cover, occasionally hitting the ground once being hit. The return shots bounced off the Hind's fuselage form, protecting the evil professor.

SNAPE: I am invincible, no one can stand against me...no one!

HAGRID: Get him!

SNAPE: Never! <shouts back and returns fire>

And inside the HQ base...Channing puts the final touches on his new invention.

NIGEL: All right, team. This is it, now or never.

NEVILLE: Let's do it!

FIGMENT: Yeah!

Acorn, having about enough of this stupid act of violence against her teammates, morphed to Big Rig mode and rushed the Hind as it hovered inches off the ground, Snape aiming the gun in her direction as she came on.

SNAPE: At last, the extermination of Sally Acorn.

HAGRID: Okay, princess...let's hit him! <actually heaves the PETERBILT into the air>

The flying truck cannon balls into the gun ship, knocking it sideways in the air and dislodging the Gatling gun from its mount. Snape went flying out of the cockpit, tumbled ass over tea kettles to the ground, got back to hands and knees and shouted.

SNAPE: Someone, help! Get that anti-matter gun! <points>

Drago Wolf scooped it up, then looked around for someone to take down when Ginny Weasley zapped him with a shot from her wand, stunning the lupine warrior who wheeled about to face her, snarling in anger.

DRAGO: You idiot, you're no match for Drago! <aims at her>

GINNY: Go ahead, make my day.

NEVILLE: Now, Figment...let's do it.

FIGMENT: Right with you, buddy. <winks>

The two sneak up on the 2nd in Command to attach some kind of adhesive tape and control box to the back side of the wolf's uniform. Sensing their presence, Drago turned to draw down on them instead.

DRAGO: For that, I'll blast you first.

NEVILLE: No way, punk! <defies him>

FIGMENT: Yeah, butt head! <flips him off>

NICOLE: I have established a link...new target selected...<goes into mind trance>

NIGEL: We did it, take that you terrorist bullies, yes! <flips bird sign>

All of a sudden, Drago felt as though another force seized control of his body and he stumbled about like a drunk, firing off the gun crazily in all directions, hitting nWo warriors instead of rangers.

DRAGO: What's going on? I'm not in control of my own powers, or my body!

MALFOY: Help! <gets stung and falls mortally paralyzed>

SLEUTH: <morphs back> You fool! Nicole has locked minds, forced you into attacking the horde instead of the rangers. <now he looks pale, sickly> And my control over the anti-matter formula is weakening me, I feel sick...

He drops to his knees, bent over and puked-hurled out the contents from his body, it splattered onto the ground in puddles. Wheezing and gasping, he kneeled there, struggling to breathe again normally when all of a sudden, the anti-matter explodes in a flash of light and sound, deafening and blinding at the same time!

Everybody gets thrown to the ground! Afterwards, Sleuth climbed to his feet and now with a scared, helpless look on his face calls for general retreat back to HQ.

SLEUTH: We've been cheated out of our victory. Syndicate...RETREAT!!! <flies into the sky>

One by one the members of the nWo Empire fly off into the distance. All the Alliance rebels cheered in triumph once again.

NINJARA: We did it, we beat those bullies again.

AMY: We sure did, yes!

BUNNIE: That's another win in the record books for us.

FOX: <to Neville> Congratulations, you saved the day. You're a hero.

NEVILLE: I did, I am?

KRYSTAL: Yes you are, Longbottoms. <smiles at him>

BUNNIE: When you rolled for broke, like when you helped me in stopping the enemy...well, you know what I mean, dude. <winks his way>

SALLY: We are proud to honor you, Neville for a heroic deed you showed today in preventing the nWo from succeeding in another attempt of taking over planet Earth.

NEVILLE: Ah, geez...it was nothing. <blushes red>

NIGEL: I suppose I too am a hero, yes?

SALLY: Indeed, professor Channing. I'm sorry for the destruction to your Institute, though.

NIGEL: No need to worry, my dear. I can rebuild my workplace anytime.

FIGMENT: You got it, boss!

Then Acorn and Potter revealed the BIG SUPRISE to everyone about the princess becoming pregnant and going to have a baby very soon. This was shocking to the entire group of wizards, witches and rangers who decided to make plans for a celebration as soon as the newborn child arrived. Meanwhile the defeated Syndicate fled back to their fortress, Sleuth Dog grumbling to himself in rage!

SLEUTH: Once again I was denied my golden opportunity of mastery of the universe. But soon revenge and victory will be mine!
